Unpacking the Catechism of the Catholic Church

The Catechism is the official teaching of the Roman Catholic Church!

966 - "Finally the Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory, and exalted by the Lord as Queen over all things, so that she might be the more fully conformed to her Son, the Lord of lords and conqueror of sin and death." The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin is a singular participation in her Son's Resurrection and an anticipation of the resurrection of other Christians:

In giving birth you kept your virginity; in your Dormition you did not leave the world, O Mother of God, but were joined to the source of Life. You conceived the living God and, by your prayers, will deliver our souls from death.

If you had to give a title to this part of the Catechism, what would it be?

Summarise the key points of this passage into three bullet points

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

What should a Roman Catholic learn from this?

If you had to create a set of action points for Catholic living based on this passage, what would they be?

Imagine you have been asked to write a new teenagers version of the Catechism that would be used for young Catholics of your age. How would you rewrite this part of the Catechism?
